

Pure Baseball

Florida Collegiate Summer League

Team Journalism Internship

The Journalism Internship position is for mature college undergraduates. Preference is given to students majoring in Journalism, Broadcast Journalism or English, and to students using the internship for college credit. Knowledge of and love for the game of baseball is essential. Ideal candidates are those who wish to gain an invaluable experience working for a sports team or organization.

Essential Duties

- Cover ALL journalism and social media needs of your assigned team.
- Game recaps of all team home and away games

Responsibilities

- Cover your team's home and away games, creating quality content submitted before deadline
- Nominate your team's Player and Pitcher of the Week
- Contribute information for Florida League yearbook and media guide
- Write bios for players and coaches to be posted on website
- Pre and post game interviews with players and coaches
- Write one feature story per week to be posted on team website
- Assist GM and team ops interns on gameday
- Grow and utilize team social media pages, including Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram, creating quality posts that engage and interest followers
- Photography, video editing skills are a huge plus

Information

- Number of Openings: 6
- Time Commitment: May 17 through August 6
- Hours Per Week: 30-40
- Locations: Altamonte, DeLand, Leesburg, Sanford, Winter Garden, Winter Park
- Housing: Interns are responsible for their own housing. We have discounted extended stay hotel rooms if needed
- Compensation: $500 stipend
Team meal at every home game

Application Procees

- Submit resume and references to Phil Chinnery (pchinnery@floridaleague.com)
- League sends questionnaire to applicant
- Applicant returns questionnaire
- League sets up phone interview with applicant

(321) 206-9174

www.floridaleague.com

FUNDED IN PART BY MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL

